

Barking Dog Diary (Statutory Declaration)

Barking Dogs

For Balonne Shire Council to proceed with an investigation into a barking dog, further information is required. Please find within this document. Council's barking dog diary; and a letter that you can provide to the owner/s of the barking dog/s as the first step in solving the issue. The barking dog diary is Council's way of collecting evidence that a dog is causing a noise nuisance. The diary must be completed over a period of seven days, signed and witnessed by a Justice of the Peace/Commissioner of Declarations, and then forwarded back to Council within seven days of completion.

Please note, you may be required to appear before the Magistrate's Court to present this diary as evidence if Council is to take enforcement against the dog's owner. If you are not willing to appear in the Magistrate's Court to present this evidence, Council is unable to take this investigation further.

The completion of these records is an important part of Council's investigations and will ensure the matter is resolved expediently. Should the information you provide be incomplete or should you fail to return the information within the required timeframe, no further action will be taken in relation to the complaint.

If Council is unable to substantiate a valid nuisance, no further action will be taken in relation to the complaint.

Council thanks you for your co-operation in this matter. Should you wish to discuss this matter further, please contact Council on 4620 8888, Monday to Friday between 8.45am and 5pm.

Please note that all parts of the Barking Dog Diary must be completed to lodge a valid investigation.
