Introduction and Purpose

The Regional Arts Development Fund (RADF) is a partnership between the Queensland Government, through Arts Queensland, and eligible local councils across the state. RADF promotes the role and value of arts, culture and heritage as key drivers of diverse and inclusive communities and strong regions. - Provide public value for Queensland communities
- Build local cultural capacity, cultural innovation, and community pride
- Deliver Queensland Government’s objectives for the community

What are Balonne Shire Council’s Local Priorities?

How Much Can I Apply For?

Funding of up to $2,500 can be requested through RADF. Applications requesting more than $2,500 will be considered where there is a strong application and project (including: extensive research, community engagement and supporting documentation), and RADF funds permit. Allocation of over $2,500 is made at the discretion of Council.

Applications that leverage RADF funding with additional sources of cash contributions will be favourably considered. Examples of this could be a participant contribution towards workshops, donations or grants from other sources, or a cash contribution by the applicant or participants.

- If the applicant is registered for GST, Council will pay the grant, plus GST (10%).

Eligible Applicants and Projects

Eligible Applicants

The following are eligible to apply for a RADF grant:

- Individual professional artists, emerging professional artists, arts workers, cultural workers or project co-ordinators who:
 - are based in the Council area, or if based outside the Council area are able to demonstrate how the project will directly benefit arts, culture, or heritage in the Council area
 - are permanent residents or Australian citizens
 - have an Australian Business Number (ABN) or who will be auspiced by an incorporated organisation or individual with an ABN

- Unincorporated organisations, auspiced by an incorporated not-for-profit body, that are based in the Council area, or those based outside the Council area that are able to demonstrate how the project will directly benefit arts, culture, or heritage in the Council area.

Eligible Projects

Eligible projects will meet the RADF objectives by fitting within one of the following locally determined categories of creative endeavour:

- Participation
Your project should deliver opportunities for local communities to participate in arts, and cultural activities. An example of this might be a mosaics course for beginners and / or target participants from demographics and segments of the community who have not historically participated in RADF funded programs or projects.

- Place

Your project should deliver opportunities for the community to experience professional performances and exhibitions that would be available to metropolitan audiences. An example of this might be a play by a professional theatre company or an exhibition of Australian Indigenous Art.

- Creative Industries

Your project should deliver opportunities for local artists and arts and cultural activities to deliver value for local communities. An example of this might be a professional development workshop for local artists.

Ineligible Applicants, Applications and Projects

Applications and Applicants

The following are ineligible for RADF support:

- Applications received after the closing date
- Projects which commence before notification of successful funding has been received
- Retrospective applications (projects completed in the past)
- Application forms which are incomplete
- Requests for 100% of project costs
- Applicants who have failed to acquit previous RADF grants

Projects

The following are ineligible for RADF support:

- Craft workshops — UNLESS a professional artist or arts worker is employed to work with a group to apply their skills in an innovative way to an arts development outcome
- Repeated activities-unless the workshop delivers a different level of difficulty & program
- School arts activities EXCEPT where those activities form part of broader community cultural development processes or are part of professional arts development
- Framing or freight — only a small proportion of these costs can be covered as part of presentation costs for significant exhibitions. As a guide only, 10% of the total framing and freight costs would be considered a small proportion
- Catering costs, openings, launches, and parties are not eligible for RADF grants, even if they are part of an exhibition or community project
- Competitions — they are prolific and could monopolise funds. The competitive environment does not necessarily nurture emerging artists, as there is generally only one winner
- Eisteddfods — they are essentially competitions
- Summer / Winter schools — Councils will not support more than two places a year
- Publishing costs — requests for grants to publish books will be directed to organisations that provide print-on-demand services. A small proportion of printing costs are eligible as part of the presentation costs for significant projects. As a guide only, 10% of the total publishing costs would be considered a small proportion

- Purchase of capital items, e.g. equipment, buildings, or vehicles. RADF grants provide artists and organisations with opportunities for employment, professional development, and a chance to practice their art. Buying capital items does not necessarily lead to these outcomes. EXCEPTION: Capital items can be funded only when they are included as part of a project application and when the RADF Committee considers the purchase integral to that project and where the item will remain available for community use
- Recurrent funding for arts organisations — operational expenses are ineligible under RADF including wages for permanent staff and office expenses. However, local arts and cultural organisations that have regular community activities may apply for funding annually for different projects which have a project management component
- Accredited study, training, or university courses

RADF Key Performance Outcomes (KPOs)

All projects receiving RADF funding will be required to report on their contribution towards RADF KPOs, impact, quality, reach, and viability.

I Have Completed My Funded Activity. Is There Anything Else I Should Do?

As part of the conditions of the Funding Agreement (ie Letter of Offer), you agree to submit an Outcome Report to Council no more than eight (8) weeks after completing your funded activity. This acquits the local RADF monies you spent. If you fail to acquit your grant, you will be ineligible to apply for future funding through RADF and Arts Queensland. In some circumstances, you may be asked to repay the grant. Your outcome report must show evidence of the outcomes of the activity and how the RADF money was spent. It is a chance to reflect on the level of success your activity achieved by:

- Identifying key outcomes
- Assessing the benefits and drawbacks
- Checking your financial estimates against your actual expenditure
- Learning from any difficulties — these can often teach more than successes
- Recognising the potential for growth or new directions in your work
- Setting new priorities.
