

Expression of Interest

RADF Assessment Panel

Balonne Shire Council is calling for Expressions of Interest (EOI) for our RADF peer assessment panel.

Peer assessment and arms-length decision making are foundation principles for Queensland Arts Funding. The process of using expert peer-assessment, and arms-length funding, ensures that the decision-making process is transparent, equitable, and robust.

Responsibilities

RADF Assessment Panel responsibilities include:

- Attending an induction/training session for the RADF program
- Assessing grant applications in accordance with Balonne Shire Council's RADF Grant Guidelines and the Community Grants Policy
- Assessing grant applications for all contestable grant rounds per year and provide comment on the applications for assessment and funding recommendations.
- Attending RADF Moderation meetings. RADF Moderation meetings are held at a minimum of once per funding round or as necessary.

Eligibility

To be eligible, RADF Assessment Panel members must:

- Possess a broad knowledge of the arts and cultural sector and regional networks in / around Balonne Shire.
- Have specific professional arts or cultural experience.
- Have the capacity to assess grant applications in accordance with RADF Grant Guidelines.
- Be able to be at arm's length from all applications.

Expressions of interest must be emailed to cdo@balonne.qld.gov.au by 1 December 2024.

Please contact Council's Manager of Community Services, Angelina Niven, on 4620 8840 if you have any questions.
